I defy death until one breath left duh, you knew that screw that... I fell back and caught myself telepathic force kinetic pulse make me impulsive so if I said it I may only have meant it for that second sixty perspectives per square minute minus the fact we lifted fake people that I disturb when I speak the real word this world is absurd like parents who think kids are "catch and release" can't cease fire with these pieces of spiritual releases whatever happens to lost souls lord, why is there so much indecision?

reaction a fraction of outcome still trust none but one god's son
study science
love to run tests actual factual percentages decide what your advantage is me I'm such a sick emcee simultaneously lost in his own blabber okay, sometimes I say shit too quick don't process it can a lost soul grow and share soil with a flower damn, I stand confused again!?! wondering if the pain in the back of my neck is a god sent sign that the choice is not mine
so I won't sweat shit fate don't fumble but next time I won't mumble take account of consequence when your heart is on the line don't go and pee on the fence ZZZAP!!! HEART ATTACK eyes roll right back lost souls fear not death we got that hundred yard stare that leave no courage, no air left in earthly opposition so from this position I retain what will remain good thoughts for the long ride and now I smile

step aside
I'm still searching

blink, blink
please receive this transmission save our souls truth be told, society is a pool and I'm stuck in the shallow end my mission not to drown as I dive, hold my breath again it can weaken my memory, but strengthen my content bent is the way lustful thoughts to grace the mind each day what's important to you?
money? cars? rings?
things of that material nature?

these poisoned ones should not be blessed with a daughter or son it's called a hand gun not a handle gun meaning don't handle your problems with one incline your ear and I will speak of my kingdom perform my words so as to enlighten some with my vision in return please fill me in on what you've learned that I've missed sharing knowledge is watering plants advance deep serious thought become involuntary action reflection on what is loved will be spiritual protection my aura
feel it
the connection, they can govern us but cannot steal it cap we be quick to peel it guerillas to banana clips you just a click, clack away from level thirteen I chill in 7theaven famous for what? nah nothing more like the unseen while my eyes are upon you you may not breathe properly if you're hiding something from me formal complaint of my need for restraint my bed comforts me
mmm
nothing but a heart beat
